CALL FOR PAPERS IN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

“Studies on Vietnamese and Korean Literature and Films in the Context of Globalization”

Dear:

Vietnam and Korea have a close relationship in terms of economic, cultural, and literary exchanges. The study on Korean literature and films to Vietnam, as well as introducing Vietnamese films and literature to Korea, has become increasingly important and urgent, contributing to further strengthening this relationship. The topics of literature and films are also becoming one of the theoretical and applied research approaches in the Faculty of Literature. Learning practical experience, researching and educating Korean literature and films will help better serve the training, as well as expanding research relationships. Therefore, the International Conference “Studies on Vietnamese and Korean Literature and Films in the Context of Globalization” is organized to enhance academic exchanges with professors and scholars at regional universities and institutes; at the same time enhancing the faculty members’ research capacities and scientific publication in international journals.
